

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ADRIAN BOOT,

Plaintiff,

v.

RHAPSODY INTERNATIONAL INC., a
Delaware corporation,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:23-cv-00470-KKE

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO ADJUST DISCOVERY CUTOFF

STIPULATION

Plaintiff Adrian Boot and Defendant Rhapsody International Inc. dba Napster (“Napster”) respectfully submit this joint stipulation to adjust the discovery cutoff in this case by 30 days, which will not affect the trial date or pretrial Court appearances.

The present discovery cutoff in this matter is January 10, 2024. (See ECF No. 12 at 2.) Both parties wish to engage in additional discovery between now and that time. The parties submit that because (a) the nature of some of the discovery they seek is time consuming to identify and exchange, and (b) the holidays are upon us, it will be difficult to complete all discovery by the scheduled deadline. Rather than impose upon the Court a disruptive last-minute request, or prejudice either party by adhering to the scheduled deadline despite unmet discovery needs, the parties ask to avoid that confrontation by moving the deadline at this time.

Specifically, they request to move the existing discovery cut-off and associated deadlines as follows:

Event	Present Deadline	Proposed Deadline
Discovery Motions	December 11, 2023	February 9, 2024
Discovery Cutoff	January 10, 2023	February 9, 2024
Dispositive & Daubert Motions	February 8, 2024	February 22, 2024

ORDER

The Court finds the parties' request to be supported by good cause and in furtherance of cooperative discovery consistent with the policy of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Therefore, the Court GRANTS parties' stipulated motion. Dkt. No. 14. The deadlines previously set and not impacted by this order (Dkt. No. 12) remain in effect.

DATED this 30th day of November, 2023.
